CITIZENS DOWN SEGREGATION DENIES CREW WAS COWARDLY IN SHIP FIRE

Gigantic Mass Meetings, Sequel To Vandals' Attack On Colored Home, Urges Race Harmony

JUSTICE ONLY, DEMANDED

Laxity Of Law And Moh Vileness Scored. Ku Klux Klan Accused And Resolution Drafted.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 21.—Harmony between the Negro and white people and a more intelligent understanding of the race problems confronting Los Angeles with its mixture of races, was the keynote of the afternoon of action which the "Clyde Line" Comanche" burnt up off Mayport, Fla., Saturday, while many passengers were on board.

False News Broadcasted. The captain was Edward George, master of the ship of the Comanche, and the Negro members of the crew's ship.

The girl of the commanding master informed the crew that our information came from the following excerpt from an account as told by the New York World will say tomorrow that the Negro crew had stampeded out of the ship, pulled passengers out of boats and precipitated men and women into the water.

Calls For Retribution. Captain Curry readily hit the press with a denial to the press begging that all fair newspapers publish it. He declared the adverse charges were false.

The denial was made before George W. Harvey, of the York, Va., Steamboat Inspection Service, who interrogated Captain Curry. The statements attributed by the New York World to the Negro crew were made a part of the investigation into the burning of the ship, which resulted in the loss of one passenger, William T. Lawler, of Winthrop, Mass.

Captain Curry denied charges that the Negro crew had stampeded, saying, only one Negro waiter had been drinking liquor. He added:

"The steward reported to me on the ship that there were no others so affected."

The white-haired Captain also denied charges that the Negro crew was in an unseamanlike manner.

Distorted Statements. Captain Curry denied the charge made by Mr. Harvey after the reading of an alleged statement by L. M. Jones, master of the ship, to the effect that the Negro officers, after his arrival on the scene said, "We have no assistance," and Captain Curry characterized this statement as absurd.

"I saw no confusion among either the passengers or crew," Captain Curry declared. "One woman, an elderly lady, however, was hysterical."

The denial was invented the crew from going between decks and for that reason the source of the fire could not be determined, Mr. Harvey said.

"There are no fire detecting appliances carried on Clyde Line boats," Captain Curry said, "but the second officer and the port engineer were on deck an hour after the sailing hour."

The Captain admitted that the passengers on one of the lifeboats had been spilled into the water thru fault of the operators.

Seven White Men Rape Fourteen Year Old Girl.

The police a few days ago arrested seven white men suspected of rape, based upon a statement made by Mrs. E. N. Elkins, a Negro girl, who says that she was lured to a house on North 14th street, held prisoner seven hours, during which time she was forced to submit.

The police say that most of the men have confessed their guilt. Their ages range from 19 to 24 years.

The Captain admitted that the passengers on one of the lifeboats had been spilled into the water thru fault of the operators.

Supreme Court To Hear Disfranchisement Case.

Authentic Believes That Case Will Settle Many Of The Disfranchisement Issues In The South.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The National Conference for the Advancement of Colored People presented a copy of a telegram from Fred C. Koenigstein, attorney of El Paso, Texas, stating that the United States Supreme Court will hear the case of Nixon vs. Herndon, which will be made in the fall.

The case arises out of a Texas law passed in 1923, prohibiting Negroes from voting in the Democratic Party primaries. The law was upheld by the Supreme Court which held the bar of a Negro, Dr. A. L. Nixon, from the Democratic primaries in accordance with the terms of the vote which they already controlled.

More than four thousand dollars raised for the A. M. E. Educational program.

Rev. William Dorsett Wilkins, pastor of St. Paul's Church, 21st & E. Church and Mrs. Wilkins are being cheered on all sides for the spin-off they are taking in the Convention. In spite of the heavy rain, the attendance last night was the largest of the conference sessions.

SNAPPY VAUDEVILLE ACTS AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

Four snappy acts of vaudeville are combined to give the Booker Washington Theatre patrons a good show this week.

Davenport and Williams, who are cutting up with "The Girl I Do," and follow with some rapid fire conversation that's full of fun. Davenport, who is a fast talker, has several gags and stories and a great humorous song. Williams sings a sweet sentiment, "Pal Of My Childhood Days," and the team closes with some love songs while they sing "I'm Goin' Home."

Nugget and Eva mix light comedy; with some mighty good singing. They stick with it, though, and the opening act that carries a bit of humor. Nugget's line of jokes is followed with impersonations of a classic and a more modern type, "The Girl I Do." An all-silent voice is displayed in this novelty. An operatic burlesque goes over big and their finale, "The Show Is On," is artistic, as well as musical.

Paul Carter and Sally Clark are the girls in the act. The female workers end with the opening act of the day, "The Gambler Husband." Their conversational comedy is "Burbie Said" and next right to be a man who lets his wife have her say. The girls leave him, his imaginings are continual, but when she returns, all dulls up; that result is a real comic in a cyclone.

The show is a real comedy act with a drawing act above it.

They sing a number of songs, including "Allegro Boogie," "Keep Your Budgie," "Home And Sweet Home," "Gwen Brown," etc. Their forte is dancing and there is plenty of it, and sparing with art, until they offer "Stomped Charleston," which leaves the house clanging for notes.

BESSIE SMITH AND COMPANY AT THE BOOKER NEXT WEEK

Bessie Smith, the famous record singer supported by a company of comedians, will open the jazz band will be the feature act on the big vaudeville program at the Booker.

Washington Theatre's next week will be a comedy bill that will be long and varied, with such stars as Cliff Ross, late comedy star of the Howard Cosell Company; and one other big comic act.

Monday will be "Pic Day," when all who enter the theatre will receive a free gift containing either a ticket to the show or a $5. eagle stamp or a valuable "souvenir."

The "Charleston" contest for five miles will be held on Friday.

Bluebird Singing Group.

The opening date of the "Blues Singing Contest" will be announced soon.

Applicants are advised to send in their names and addresses to the theatre or any person connected thereto. Names and street numbers should be plainly given. A trial at record producing by leading companies.

"BLACK AND WHITE" SHOW AT GAYETY DRAWING CROWDS

Mr. P. Dickey's "Black and White" Spectation in the "Gayety" is packing the Gayety Theatre at each matinee and night performance this week. It is a double entertainment with a variety performance, mostly between black and white. Some of the best white actors and actresses on the Columbia circuit are present in the combination and the show is indeed a treat.

The colored contingent is the feature attraction. Jimmie Ferguson and Eva Moore are the stars. They are joined by a host of others, who are in the singing. Florence McLean, Lena Wilson, Gladys Smith, Loret Taylor and "Gertie" Moore lead the "Female Singers." Jimmie Ferguson and his artistic work, Joe Jordan and his "Ten Sharp and Fads" are weird but tuneful jazzers. The "Plantation" is a feature of the show.

A midnight matinee will start at 11:45 this Friday night. The program is a lengthy one, and full of gaiety.

The "Gayety" will be the next attraction at the Gayety, beginning Sunday.

RACE PREJUDICE!

"I am convinced myself that there is no more evil in this present world than race prejudice; none at all!" "I work desperately—it is the worst single thing in life now. I just think that human sacrifice more happens, cruelty and abomination than any other sort of error in the world." —H. G. Wells.

IS PRESIDENT COOLIDGE SINCERE

After a careful reading of the Omaha speech of President Coolidge we find we are unable to be so enthusiastic as many of our contemporaries over this speech. We have searched high and low, diligently and minutely, to discover the sincere chord but are unable to find it.

There was little said that could be construed to refer to the Negroes of this country. However, much more creditable and favorable comment have been made on the following paragraph:

"The result of the war will be less underdevelopment by curtailing a period of preparation for another conflict, unless we can demobilize the racial antagonisms, fears, hatreds and suspicions and create an attitude of toleration and I believe that the place where it should begin is at home."

We have fully agreed with the President that "the place where it should begin is at home." These racial antagonisms, hatreds and suspicions were begun long ago and the "demobilizing" of them certainly should begin with the enlightened.

The question of security arises when we consider the President as the Chief Executive of this great country and having the power within his grasp to initiate the "demobilizing" by starting within his own Governmental departments. In another sentence he said: "Among some of the varying racial, religious and social groups of people there have been manifestations of an intolerance which is a narrowness of outlook, a fixity of judgment, against which we will be warning." In the Governmental departments he will find "the field of judgment" that existed even before the world war and it has not been demobilized since the war. However, if the President is sincere in his quoted statement that he believes that it should begin at home, then he can begin it by issuing an executive order eliminating some of the "fields of judgment" which segregates, discriminates against and fosters contempt for the opinion and feelings of the minorities of the colored employees under the civil service, in the various departments there in Washington.

Under such orders are uttered in sincerity there is no weight to them and little weight would be held out for the carrying out of a program thereby described. An order following an expression adds much to the power of the expression. The attitude which the President has manifested toward the Negro certainly does not warrant such ecstasy manifested by many colored papers over this speech in Omaha.

We realize that there is a general ground swell of desire, via craving for action on the part of the President to relieve many of the ills suffered by the Negroes of this great country of ours. Therefore when this Republican President let a precious few words drop in Omaha, rightly referring to the race and its ills, craving hearts grabbed at the bait and ran off with it without giving it due consideration which it deserved.

When we take into consideration that President Coolidge has been in the chair for more than three years and has not made a single appointment of a colored man to an office of any importance. That he continues Col. C. E. Sherrill Democrat of North Carolina, in office in charge of building and grounds in the District. That this same Sherrill is responsible for the insulting and humiliating segregation of colored people at the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial. That he is responsible for the segregation of Negroes on the golf links, the bathing beaches, on the baseball diamonds, the tennis courts, the restaurants in the Capitol building. The segregation of Negroes in the various departments there in Washington has been right on the line since the time of the Klan in a number of times. He is well aware of the disaffection among American citizens in a number of states. His department of Justice is responsible for the wide spread proslavery system of the south. And he is aware of the marauding lawlessness of the Klan. Therefore, with this array of evidence before us we cannot help but ask the question, "Is the President Sincere?" If he is, then when will he begin to demobilize?

CONGRATULATIONS, BISHOP CLEAVES

The news of the retirement of one Rev. Dr. J. E. Kuykendall as pastor of the C. M. E. Church at Vandenburg followed the exposure by The Argus of his acceptance of Klan money, comes as in due course of time. We hereby congratulate Bishop Cleaves for this action which we believe is not only of interest to the great C. M. E. Church, but to all the race.

Of course, there are always those who will say that he did not get justice. Therefore, we want to be counted in the front rank of those who will say that Rev. Kuykendall did not get justice. He ought to have it. We say that if it was in the power of the Bishop and the conference to do it. We can't for the life of us see that such a man is fit to stand between the consecrated walls of a church and preach righteousness to a people because he is either too ignorant or too dishonest to know better.

It is said that Kuykendall justifies the visit of the Klan to his church on the ground that "he needed the money," referring to the $25,000 the members of the Klan donated on the occasion of their visit. To our mind, is all the more reason why he should be condemned. We say just as accepting blood money; money that is tainted with the very sin of the colored people. The Klan has a bloody record all the way from Texas to Maine, and to accept money at their hands, when it is publicly known that they are your enemies, is really carrying things too far.

The C. M. E. Church, the Bishop's Council or whoever has the power in the church, could silence this ungodly preacher and let him go his way, serving the devil in a public way.

A few days ago, in this city, seven white men, in the broad open day time, raped a fourteen year-old school girl. Just think of it! Seven white men, one right after the other, raping a helpless girl, and yet, they say that the Negro is the rapist of the land. Find, if you please, a similar case in which Negroes were ever charged, and an argument might be raised.

Patience, though sometimes bitter, often brings a sweet reward.

We have heard from most of the aspiring Negro politicians except Jas. W. Hutt. We guess he is too busy with the cues and balls to be rolled around for nothing.

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 21.—K. T. Talley, 22 year-old Negro of 1117 Elm Street, is expected to die from injuries received Friday when struck in the stomach by a heavy piece of steel. He was rushed to St. Joseph's Infirmary, where physicians pronounced him comatose.

Tabor with some other workers was unloading some heavy machinery at a truck, when the accident occurred.

It is said that Kuykendall justifies the visit of the Klan to his church on the ground that "he needed the money," referring to the $25,000 the members of the Klan donated on the occasion of their visit.

To our mind, is all the more reason why he should be condemned. We say just as accepting blood money; money that is tainted with the very sin of the colored people. The Klan has a bloody record all the way from Texas to Maine, and to accept money at their hands, when it is publicly known that they are your enemies, is really carrying things too far.

The C. M. E. Church, the Bishop's Council or whoever has the power in the church, could silence this ungodly preacher and let him go his way, serving the devil in a public way.

A few days ago, in this city, seven white men, in the broad open day time, raped a fourteen year-old school girl. Just think of it! Seven white men, one right after the other, raping a helpless girl, and yet, they say that the Negro is the rapist of the land. Find, if you please, a similar case in which Negroes were ever charged, and an argument might be raised.

Patience, though sometimes bitter, often brings a sweet reward.

We have heard from most of the aspiring Negro politicians except Jas. W. Hutt. We guess he is too busy with the cues and balls to be rolled around for nothing.

FEDERAL CHURCH COUNCIL TO MAKE A CRUSADE FOR BETTER RACE RELATIONS

Supreme Domestic Task Before Churches In America To-Day Is Fight Against Racial Prejudices and Intolerance.

CHURCHES LYNCHING IN THE LAND

As segregation, proscription, and racial barriers have made evident in this country other agencies are not averse to the danger of the situation.

One of the agencies that is working among all races is the Federal Church Council of the Church of Christ in America.

In a statement recently issued by the executive, Dr. E. W. Ralston, of that body, the churches and the Christian people of the nation are called upon to rally their forces to bring about a brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God.

The Commission's report was as follows:

"We have come to a period of the world when the peaceful relations of racial groups in daily life are vital to the welfare peace of all the nations. The assumption of inherent racial superiority by dominant groups around the world is neither sustainable nor wise. The effort to adjust race relations upon that basis and by the use of force is dismal of the Christian principles of love, the supremacy of ethical values and the supreme worth of personality. As it applies to the relations of white and Negro people in America, it is a condition which leads only to suffering and despair."

"On the other hand to demonstrate that Christian ideals are sufficient to move the peaceful relations of race relations in America is the supreme domestic task before the churches today. Christians must seek as the basis for their work the principles of justice, equality, and brotherhood, mutual interests and pre-

"For policies and methods of work to that end, in the spirit of Jesus Christ and under His guidance of God, we come to the churches of America the following:

"FACE THE FACTS—Let the church of Christ in America confess and denounce racism and the use of their pulpits and lecture platforms to bring the facts of race and race relations to the light of day. Let them give to the public press and magazine to give larger space and attention to the whole range of information.

"The churches should continue to exert every effort to help bring the truth in this field. The experience of history, the knowledge of science, and the ethics and spiritual values of religion should be utilized as guides toward peace and goodwill between the races. In increasing degree the preparation and publication of such literature and service the churches are obliged to render.

SISTER SUSAN SAYS

It is quite surprising to find how many Kewpies are interested in the original contest. I

I would have been more pleased if more persons had participated, however, I hope in the next contest there will be more participation.

The results of the contest will be published next week. If the judges have made their decisions, Mrs. McMurtry will be able to determine the winners.

There were 100 entries in the contest, which were all excellent.

They were all very interesting, the only error being in spelling, paragraphs and punctuation.

INTERRACIAL CONFERENCES: The past years have demonstrated the effective utility of conferences between different religious, educational, and social groups to discuss conditions that confront them and to adopt plans to deal with the situation. These conferences have been most effective where such have been held to compete persons beforehand to secure data as a basis for such conference and program making. The following is from recent and important surveys on conferences.

One of the agencies that is working among all races is the Federal Church Council of the Church of Christ in America.

assist them in starting the school-and-church-community spirit.

There may be other communities in the same condition. They may have sufficient number of children, but parents do not see the necessity of going to ask for the privileges which may be theirs for the asking. Schools are very necessary; education is crying need. The parents & the school are the education of their children. There is many a boy and girl who leaves home early, well, that he could have a larger outlook, leave home, in search of education. When they reach the time that man comes up in their place, unless their parents are in the city making a sacrifice for their education. The young people have succeeded in getting what they go after.

It is a possible sight, if the members of the church people can have their names. They are honest, hard workers and thoroughly dependable, yet without education, it may be difficult to find a job. Many of them are willing to do as time goes on, they lose their places in the economic life of the city and become a burden upon the community.

The men called at the office of the Department of Education were the rough and tumble with the fact that the children of these negroes should have an education. Here and there we find persons saying that our group should remain on the farm, but we cannot insist on one, we are through-going, intelligent and aspiring Negro to remain on the farm, because we know that when they are educated in darkness, for certain there is no light unless the school is in operation.

The addition of most men seen to the discovery of some medical whereby the necessity for muscular effort can be avoided:

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 21.—The house of delegates Monday unanimously adopted a resolution making place of the 1925 general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The action, which the house of delegates took, was the result of a vote of 100 to 3 with the house of deputies.

The resolution of the House of Deputies for 1925, voted at the general convention Monday, was 424 to 270. The report of the joint committee on the status of Negroes, presented at the 1925 general convention, was 150 to 100, representing interest in invested funds, and the United States' financial and industrial policy.

The report was originally submitted as $4,200,000, but agreement of the delegates to wipe out the church debt led to the reduction of $144,000, so payment of $4,056,000 was recommended after the subtraction of the original bill totalled $500,000.

The committee charged with consideration of the original report of the joint committee on the status of Negroes, announced that after three extended hearings all decisions were unanimous.

The report also recommended a resolution regarding the principle of church taxes to the budget. These included $10,000 for St. Stephen's, New York, and $20,000 for the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

JOHN'S DISCIPLES BECOME CHRISTIANS

These did the same thing as a number of other people did, as a preparation for the kingdom of God.
They taught them to believe on Christ, and to receive Him as the one on the cross who had provided redemption for them. When they received Christ, Paul had hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.
Paul Preaching in Ephesus (cont.)

1. In the Jewish Synagogue (v. 8).
Though the Jews were Paul's inventive enemies his was—a go to do from first with the gospel. His preaching was characterized:

a. By his boldness. He realized that God sent him, and that His authority was back of him.

b. By reason. God's message is in accord with the highest reason.

c. By persistence. It is strong enough to contend with a reasonable message. It must be accompanied by perseverance.

d. By speaking concerning the end of the Jews. He did not discourage an audience with talk about the end of the world, but used the mess of salvation through Christ.

e. By his desire to make the day bright for the devotions while the fading light brings vegetables. Each will try to excel. Aside from this attention to detail, however, he did not whatever Rev. Paul does this sunday, we could not expect him to do much more than he did on Sunday with the first few days of the selected series. "Why I Am a Christian" (v. 17).

BEREA PRESBYTERIAN

Mr. John Gibbons sustained a particular discipline of his own, from which he never deviated, from which affliction with infinite patience and fortitude, and was a wonder to the world. He uniting with this, lived a life of great purity, and was loved so much he leave a devoted daughter, Mrs. Burton, and a beloved son, Mr. Gibbons, and lived in quietude in a simple home near his birthplace, Alton, Ill.

extraordinary way fit his soul upon his work. So wonderfully did he manifest His power that hamper-

Questions And Answers In Negro History

By GEORGE WELLS PARKER Author Of
"The Children of the Sun"

Questions pertaining to Negro history, which are of general interest and not too long, will be answered by Mr. Parker in this column. When space is not sufficient, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations, and the writer will be given an enclosed address to George Wells Parker, 1425 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Answer, 1925, by Associated Negro Press.

"We are condemned criminals, hanged on Friday and when was the first church built?" J. H. A. DeRidder, Texas.

The story goes, given by reason of the belief that Christ was crucified on Friday, that the first church was after the first organized church was built.

It is not true, however, that Christ himself, but it is to the credit of the church as a place of worship, there is no record.

Can you tell me who was King Anna, 311, and about his reign?

J. F. A. Kimball, Chicago, Illinois.

What can you tell me about the Egyptian pyramids?

R. L. Bryan, Bryan, Texas.

An answer to this question would be welcome.

What is the best book to read about Negroes?

E. G. Babylon, Chardon, Ohio.

What is the best book on African History?

W. E. B. DuBois, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Negro has made contributions to American history, but what are his most outstanding contributions?

Perhaps the only one that can be attributed to civilization is his contribution to the world's knowledge of man's education.

Otherwise, the Negro before and after these last sixty years has contributed nothing to civilization.

There have been enormous contributions of African to the world, but this was made by the African of antiquity and not of today.

Should not Negroes be allowed to go to southern schools?

That is again another opinion of the south, and any text books giving the Negro credit would not be used.

Was English, the founder of geometry, a Negro? K. L. Lincoln, N.Y.

He was a native Englishman and of African blood. He died in obscurity under the Phoenician sun.

Mr. P. L. Hill of Portland, Oregon, questions the assertion that Michelangelo reached the Poles with Perry by asserting that the latter probably never visited the Arctic regions.

He says that the official records still stand until sufficient evidence is brought forth to disprove him.

In the theory of evolution is the Negro considered to be nearer to a ape species than the Nordic? B. L. M. Syracuse, N.Y.

According to anthropologists there are as many variations to be found in the Negro as in the Nordic and one is nearer the primate type.

Was Asopus, the author of the famous Greek tables, a Negro? F. G. T. Sedalia, Mo.

Asopus' "unconquerables" described him as a person more nearly deformed. His body was long, nose short, hair thin, and skin dark, a human caricature.

Was this a well-known fact when he christened his name Asopus, bearing the same as Ethiopia?

What was the immediate cause of the formation of the slaves in the state of Louisiana? H. S. Welch, Miss.

The number of southerners in the North, particularly those southern states, the problem came up to Lincoln and the war department. The Negro was considered. In the debate it was argued that the Negroes were not fit for military service unless free from and the result was the emancipation. The Great Conspiracy, by Horace Greeley.

While religion has more converts among the Africans, Christianity or Mohammedanism? F. K. J., Boston, Mass.

Mohammedanism.

I have recently seen the Ten Commandments by D. Miller, and in this picture the Egyptians are represented as the traitors and the Hebrews as the true people. How do you account for this? G. W. W., Chi. 420.

Simply that the American writers of the time were ignorant of Egyptology of today, and that those of the Upper Nile were wholly incorrect.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1, I was told that the Negroes for the Mexican government is it true, and was it in 1925? H. T. Davis, Okla.

In 1925, under the Diaz regime, a Canadian engineering firm secured a contract to build several hundred miles of railroad in Mexico, and a colored engineer to take charge. He finished the construction to the entire satisfaction of the Mexican government, but his name is forgotten.

One luxury robe you of two necessities.

Negroes Die Faster Than Whites In Washington

Associated Negro Press

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Recent publication of vital statistics by the Bureau of the Census, and collected records of the District of Columbia reveal an alarmingly high death rate among the colored citizens.
